This volume really began on November 23, 1964, when the trustee under the will of the late Alfred Charles Campbell Dougall called on me and asked for my help in determining who the eventual heirs might be if a trust created by the will were to come to an end at some future date in such circumstances that the proceeds would need to be distributed to very distant cousins. (I was later informed that, following a change in the law, the New York courts have now permitted the trust to be disbursed to the surviving immediate heirs, but by that time the seeds of this volume had already been planted and had sprouted.)

In 1964 I thought that I knew a good deal about the Dougall family, but in fact I then had in my possession only a very modest genealogy showing part of the information now contained in sections 1-3, 316, 333-345, 352-353, and 366 of this book. Since then, with good luck, hard work, and the cooperation of literally scores of dozens of cousins, I have been able to expand that modest beginning into the present family history. If I were to work on it for another eight years, I could undoubtedly trace some of the lines which are still missing, but I have called a halt so that what I have discovered could be made available to all interested branches of the family.

I wish to express my appreciation to all the cousins who have given me information in correspondence or conversations or in the form of copies of family documents. Without their interest and cooperation this volume could not have been produced. Without in any way detracting from my appreciation to all who have helped me, I must give special thanks to Dougall Anthony Kittermaster, whose generous gift of century-old copies of the John and Duncan Dougall Bible Records (reproduced in Appendices A and B), the James Dougall Family Record, two letters by Hugh Dougall or McDougall (one of them reproduced in Appendix D), and other family papers made it possible for me to build the basic framework attaching the entire Young branch (sections 4-315) and the New Jersey McDougall branch (sections 368-681) to the Canadian branch of the Dougalls from whom I am descended; to Thomas Jolly Young, who generously put his research on the Youngs at my disposal and interviewed a very large number of cousins in the Sarnia-Wyoming area for me; to Hume Blake Young, who also helped with the Youngs, particularly the western branches; to Hilda (Steigman) Scott, who gave me great assistance with the Woodruffs and some of the other families descended from the New Jersey McDougalls; to Miriam Kortright and the late James McDougall Craven, who helped enormously on other McDougall lines; to the late Alice Amelia Bratt, whose loan of the Robert McDougall Family Record made it possible for me to find the connecting link for one whole branch of the family; to Hildegarde Dorothy (Brittain) Nicholson, who sketched out most of the Anderson branch for me; and to Charles Dougall Bell, who was of great help on the Windsor Dougalls. I have followed up with research to fill in many details, but I could never have approached such full coverage of many of the branches of the family without the unstinting aid of these particular cousins.

I also must express my thanks to many people who are not related to me at all who have nevertheless responded most generously to requests for information at their disposal. This long list includes librarians in public, private, historical-society, and university libraries; archivists; college alumni secretaries; clergymen and parish secretaries; funeral directors and cemetery superintendents; Dougalls and McDougalls who turned out to be unrelated (or at least of no provable relationship) to my branch of the family; friends of members of the family; residents of houses formerly occupied by members of the family; and genealogists of related families who helped with whole branches of their families which came within the scope of my work. In this last category I must mention specifically Mrs. Esther Burnham of Sarnia for her help with the Ferguson family and the late Mrs. Phoebe Schling of Huntington, Long Island, for her help with Wiggins descendants.

My acknowledgments would be incomplete indeed without an expression of gratitude to all those who made the illustrations available to me and to the following patrons of the volume whose contributions helped greatly in making publication economically feasible: Cora (Smith) Barteld, C. Dougall Bell, Helen (Christian) Bittner, Myrtle (Haggerty) Burd, Helen (Paxton) Butz, Arthur Henry DeVoe, James Donald Dougall (in memory of Dorothy Dougall Eells), Robert D. Dougall, George H. Drake, Alma (Bird) Eastley, Mabel (Anderson) Fells, Margaret (Cruickshank) Forbes, Regina (Christian) Grimm, Floyd W. Haggerty, Jr., Max H. Hayward, Nellie (Bird) Headley, Vera (Smith) James, Rosalynde M. Johnston, Caroline (Cochrane) Kent, Alden P. King, James McDougall Kortright, Miriam Kortright, Ella May (Bird) Lee, Albert H. McDougall, Ezra V. McDougall, J. Murray McDougall, Robert McDougall, Edna (Lambert) McGrath, R. D. Mackenzie, Marian (Bird) McKinlay, John Locke Malkin, Clara (Goble) Milens, Barbara (Harris) Mimmack, Lila (Malkin) Molson, Marion Dorothy (Marcon) Murray, Joan (Storm) Nugent, Theodore W. Palmer, Francies (Tice) Plank, Gerald L. Plimpton, Myrtle (Wark) Schutte, Hilda (Steigman) Scott, Adèle (Blain) Smart, Oscar Smith, Victor Smith, Dorothy (Young) Snippa, Alexandra (Crane) Stelter, Walter E. Strangway, Alice (Bryan) Strohmeyer, Edith (Anderson) Syrett, G. Webster Taylor, Dorothy (Payne) Wands, Hume B. Young, and J. Donald Young.

A few words about the information included. I have done my best to include, for each descendant of James Dougall and Christian (Buchanan) Dougall and for each spouse of each descendant, to the extent applicable: full name; date and place of birth, marriage, divorce, and death; place of burial; occupation; military service; university education; publications; names of parents-in-law; location of published biographic data; current address; and any special facts which seemed of wide interest. I have particularly tried to include information which would be useful to future family genealogists who may wish to build on this foundation--I know that it would have saved me hours of work if some family histories printed about 1900 had given places as well as dates for births and deaths (knowing where to start looking for information is half the battle).

A list of abbreviations and symbols is included later in the volume, but it may be useful to repeat the principal symbols here:

* is used for born x is used for married † is used for died
□ is used for buried
§ is used for section
+ is used for child or children
++ means that there are untraced descendants
++? means that there may be untraced descendants

Dates of birth are enclosed in square brackets if they are derived solely from the age of the individual recorded at some later time, e.g., in a census, on a tombstone, or in a marriage or death record. If the date is partly in brackets and partly not, e.g. * [15 May] 1870, it means that the part outside the brackets came from a source which stated specifically that the individual was born in 1870, but that the exact date of birth in that year was figured from a source which said that he or she was a given age at some later date--death certificates frequently give the exact age of the deceased in years, months, and days, but I have thought it wise to include cautionary brackets when I have calculated a date of birth from such a source.

To save space, I have not repeated the name of the state (United States) or province (Canada) or county (England and Scotland) when the same place name occurs more than once in a single section (unless it is necessary for clarity within a single section to distinguish between, for example, London, England, and London, Ontario).

A general bibliography follows the main body of the volume, but specific sources for the information given in individual sections are given in a separate part following the bibliography.

I would be naive to believe that a book like this, with thousands of proper names and thousands of dates, is free from error. I have done my best, but I offer most sincere apologies to any cousin who may find a misspelled name or an incorrect date because of my carelessness, bad typing, or poor proofreading. But with all its limitations this volume will be of interest, I hope, to the whole family and a useful reference tool for the members of its many branches.

JAMES DOUGALL OF GLASGOW (1699-1760) AND HIS DESCENDANTS THROUGH DOUGALL AND McDOUGALL LINES IN THE UNITED STATES AND CANADA

James DOUGALL; * in Scotland, [1699]; weaver; † Glasgow, Lanarkshire, Scotland, 21 May 1760 (age 61); □ Glasgow; x Christian BUCHANAN, * [1690], † Glasgow, 19 Jan. 1772 (age 82), □ Glasgow (High Ch. Burial Ground). +:

1. James; bapt. Glasgow, 17 Mar. 1723; † young.
2. [Another] James; bapt. Glasgow, 25 Apr. 1725; ++? (Possibly the James DOUGALL or DOWGALD of Calton who x Janet CRAIG and had the following +, all bapt. in Barony Parish, Glasgow: John, * 3 Jan. 1750; Janet, * 29 July 1752; [another] John, * 30 July 1754; Mary, * 5 Sept. 1757.)
3. John; * Glasgow, 12 Mar. 1728 (see §2).
4. Walter; * [1732] (see §368).
5. Alexander; * [Feb. 1733] (see §682).

[Notes: The author has used the spelling Dougall throughout for the early generations of the family, although the Scottish records of the period spelled the name Dougall, Dugall, Dougald, Dougalld, and Dowgald. -- According to the Duncan Dougall Bible Record (see Appendix B), the first James Dougall named above was * in Kirkintiloch or Calder. The parochial registers for Kirkintiloch, Dumbartonshire, show no Dougall births in the period around 1699, so it seems likely that James was * at Calder (now Cadder), Lanarkshire, Scotland, where the parochial registers show numerous Dougall births, although not his. -- There may have been other children, including the Colin Dowgald who (with James Dowgald) was a witness at the baptism of Walter Dougall's twin children (see §368).

THOMAS DESCRIBES THE ASCENSION

There was an enormous stillness around the head.
And then, suddenly, body shot to fire,
with flames like angels spurting from the sides, and a humming noise, like harp strings plucked to snap, broke out within that form, and swelled, and snapped;

and then, without a tremor, the man began to rise.

Not like a bird, with motions of the will,
or a hooked fish, dragged by another's hand,
but like a dream lost in its own surprise.

Not slow, not fast, but soon there was only light,
and shortly, the eyes' reflection of light,
and then a speck of black in the mind's eye.

We waited – until the world remained our world –
no single blade was scorched – and then went home, believing the truth, but somehow, terrified;

and wishing that with all this earth of a world
there was at least one spot a stone could hold, that if it had to be up it had not been so high.

all x in A, and A is $(\phi, 1)$ rectifiable, then $0 < \Theta^1_*(\phi, A, x) = \blacktriangle^1_*(\phi, A, x) < \infty$ for ϕ almost all x in A.

3.10. COROLLARY. If the hypotheses of 3.9 hold, then $0 < \Theta^1_(\phi, A, x) = \Theta^1_*(\phi, A, x) < \infty$ for ϕ almost all x in A.*

The proof is by 2.8.

4. Summary. Theorem 4.1 can be proved by using 3.7, 3.8, 3.9, 3.10, and 2.8. Theorems 4.2 and 4.3 also use the results of, and employ the notation of, Federer [3, Theorems 9.1, 9.2]. A proof of 4.3 also involves 2.10.

4.1. THEOREM. If $n \geq 1$, $\phi \in \mathfrak{U}^1_$, $A \subseteq E_n$, and $\phi(A) < \infty$, then the following five propositions are equivalent:*

(1) $\Theta^1_*(\phi, A, x) < \infty$ for ϕ almost all x in A, and A is $(\phi, 1)$ rectifiable,
(2) $\Theta^1_*(\phi, A, x) < 1.01\,\Theta^1_*(\phi, A, x)$ for ϕ almost all x in A,
(3) $3\blacktriangle^1_*(\phi, A, x) < 4\Theta^1_*(\phi, A, x)$ for ϕ almost all x in A,
(4) $0 < \Theta^1_*(\phi, A, x) = \Theta^1_*(\phi, A, x) < \infty$ for ϕ almost all x in A,
(5) $0 < \blacktriangle^1_*(\phi, A, x) = \Theta^1_*(\phi, A, x) < \infty$ for ϕ almost all x in A.

4.2. THEOREM. If $n \geq 2$, $\phi \in \mathfrak{U}^1_$, $A \subseteq E_n$, $\phi(A) < \infty$, and $\Theta^1_*(\phi, A, x) < \infty$ for ϕ almost all x in A, then the following eight propositions are equivalent.*

(1) A is $(\phi, 1)$ rectifiable,
(2) A is $(\phi, 1)$ restricted at ϕ almost all of its points,
(3) corresponding to ϕ almost all x in A there is an $R \in G_n$ such that

$$\mathcal{Q}^1_*(\phi, A, R, x) = 0 < \Theta^1_*(\phi, A, x),$$

(4) corresponding to ϕ almost all x in A we can find R and η such that $R \in G_n$, $0 < \eta < 1$, and $\limsup_{r \to 0+} \nabla^1_(\phi, A, R, \eta, r, x) < 005\,\Theta^1_*(\phi, A, x)$,*
(5) $\Theta^1_*(\phi, A, x) < 1.01\,\Theta^1_*(\phi, A, x)$ for ϕ almost all x in A,
(6) $3\blacktriangle^1_*(\phi, A, x) < 4\Theta^1_*(\phi, A, x)$ for ϕ almost all x in A,
(7) $0 < \Theta^1_*(\phi, A, x) = \Theta^1_*(\phi, A, x)$ for ϕ almost all x in A,
(8) $0 < \blacktriangle^1_*(\phi, A, x) = \Theta^1_*(\phi, A, x)$ for ϕ almost all x in A.

4.3. THEOREM. If $n \geq 2$, $\phi \in \mathfrak{U}^1_$, A is a Borel subset of E_n, $0 < \phi(A) < \infty$, $\Theta^1_*(\phi, A, x) > 0$ for all x in A, and $\Theta^1_*(\phi, A, x) < \infty$ for ϕ almost all x in A, then the following six propositions are equivalent:*

(1) A is purely $(\phi, 1)$ unrectifiable,
(2) A has a subset B for which $\phi(A - B) = 0$ and $\limsup_{r \to 0+} \nabla^1_(\phi, A, R, \eta, r, x) \geq 005\,\Theta^1_*(\phi, A, x)$ whenever $x \in B$, $R \in G_n$, and $0 < \eta < 1$,*
(3) A has a subset B for which $\phi(A - B) = 0$ and $x \in B$ implies

$$\mathcal{Q}^1_*(\phi, A, R, x) > 0 \text{ for } \phi_* \text{ almost all } R \text{ in } G_n,$$

(4) $\mathcal{L}_1[P^1_\#{}^*(A)] = 0$ for ϕ_ almost all R in G_n,*
(5) $\Theta^1_*(\phi, A, x) \geq 1.01\,\Theta^1_*(\phi, A, x)$ for ϕ almost all x in A,
(6) $3\blacktriangle^1_*(\phi, A, x) \geq 4\Theta^1_*(\phi, A, x)$ for ϕ almost all x in A.

sentation of $\mathfrak{A}$ on a Banach space, or as the set of elements R in $\mathfrak{A}$ for which

$$\lim_{t \to 0} \frac{\|I + itR\| - 1}{t} = 0, \qquad t \text{ real}.$$

Clearly if $\mathfrak{A}$ is isometrically isomorphic to a C^*-algebra, then $\mathfrak{A}_r$ corresponds to the set of self-adjoint elements.

THEOREM. A Banach algebra $\mathfrak{A}$ is isometrically isomorphic to a C^-algebra if and only if one (hence both) of the following conditions hold:*

(1) For each $S \in \mathfrak{A}$ there is at least one pair R, $J \in \mathfrak{A}_r$ with $S = R + iJ$.

In this case R and J are uniquely determined by S and $\pi(R - iJ) = \pi(R + iJ)^$ where π is any isometric representation of $\mathfrak{A}$ as a C^-algebra.

(2) There is a real linear subspace $\mathfrak{A}_r$ of $\mathfrak{A}$ such that $R^2 \in \mathfrak{A}_r$ if $R \in \mathfrak{A}_r$ and $\mathfrak{A}_r = \operatorname{clo}\{e^{tR} : R \in \mathfrak{A}_r\}$.

In this case the norm closure of the real linear span of $\mathfrak{A}_r \cup \{I\}$ is $\mathfrak{A}$, and (1) holds.

The first condition can be informally stated: A Banach algebra $\mathfrak{A}$ is a C^*-algebra iff $\mathfrak{A} = \mathfrak{A}_r + i\mathfrak{A}_r$. It differs from Corollary 4.4 of [1] in the omission of a hypothesis.

PROOF. Condition (1) is necessary since e^{iR} is unitary if R is self-adjoint. Lemma 1 shows the necessity of (2) when the set of self-adjoint elements is chosen as $\mathfrak{A}_r$.

Assume next that condition (1) is satisfied. Then the decomposition $S = R + iJ$ is unique [7, Hilfssatz 2c]. For $S \in \mathfrak{A}$, let $S^3 = R + iJ$ with R, $J \in \mathfrak{A}_r$. Then $(R + iJ)S = S(R + iJ)$ so $(RS - SR) = i(SJ - JS)$. However both $i(RS - SR)$ and $i(SJ - JS)$ belong to $\mathfrak{A}_r$ [7, Hilfssatz 2b], so they are both zero, and R commutes with S, S^3 and hence with J. Therefore $\mathfrak{A}$ satisfies the hypotheses of Vidav's theorem [7] and the proof of the sufficiency of (1) could be concluded by citing results in [1]. However the proof can also be completed without reference to the arguments of §§2 and 3 of [1].

Vidav's theorem exhibits a norm $\|\cdot\|_0$ on $\mathfrak{A}$ equivalent to the given norm $\|\cdot\|$ on $\mathfrak{A}$ and equal to it on $\mathfrak{A}_r$, and shows that the map $R + iJ \to R - iJ$ is an involution on $\mathfrak{A}$, relative to which $\mathfrak{A}_r$ normed by $\|\cdot\|_0$, is isometrically $$-isomorphic to a C^-algebra. Thus Lemma 1 shows that the closed unit ball of $\mathfrak{A}$ relative to $\|\cdot\|_0$ is clo $\mathfrak{A}_r$ which is certainly a subset of the closed unit ball of $\mathfrak{A}$ relative to $\|\cdot\|$. Therefore $|S| \leq \|S\|_0$ for all $S \in \mathfrak{A}$. However if $\|S\| < \|S\|_0$ then

[Notes: The † of Walter Dougal's 1st wife is given in the John Dougall Bible Record (see Appendix A), where she is identified as John's sister-in-law. Since John (see §2) x Mary CAMPBELL, and Agnes' death is mentioned in a list of his Campbell relatives, it is possible that Agnes was a "double" sister-in-law, i.e., both Walter's wife and Mary's sister. -- The surname of Walter's 2d wife is given as MOOR in all the sources cited except the record of * of Hugh DOUGALL, where it is given as MUIR. -- The dates of birth given for James, Walter, Jr., and Susannah (the children) and for Walter, Sr., and Susan (the mother) are from the Commerce passenger list (see p. 182). Note that the ages in the passenger list for some of the other children do not agree with the dates of * found in by Jay Gould) had kept an army of Irish Catholics in line. On the evening of that fatal day Blaine attended a dinner at Delmonico's as the guest of Gould and other New York financiers. The next morning on the front page of the New York World appeared the famous Royal Feast of Belshazzar cartoon (No. 68) by a youngster named Walt McDougall. Blaine is centered at a table of honor, flanked by Gould and Vanderbilt. Others at the table and behind it are well-known leaders in industrial finance at the time. Whitelaw Reid hovers obsequiously near the guest of honor. Behind the table is the "writing on the wall," Mene Mene Tekel Upharsin. In the left foreground a laborer and his family beg for crumbs. McDougall had the assistance of Valerian Gribayédoff in drawing the many faces. Gribayédoff was a Russian soldier of fortune who had settled in New York. He had a clever knack at portraiture and was in some demand as an illustrator.

The cartoon, crude as it was, created a sensation. It was greatly enlarged and posted upon thousands of billboards; and it, the Delmonico dinner, and the Rum, Romanism, and Rebellion speech accounted for Blaine's loss of New York (and consequently the presidency) by a little more than eleven hundred votes. So baptismal records. John is not mentioned in the passenger list, but it is known from Appendix D that he emigrated to New York also. -- See Appendix D concerning James, Walter, Jr., Robert, and John (the letter printed there gives the date of Robert's † as 1797 and states that he was survived by 4 +). -- Alexander DOUGAL(L) apparently assumed the surname McDOUGALL between 11 Nov. 1798 (when his son George was baptized as the son of Alexander DOUGAL) and 16 Feb. 1801 (when his da. Eunice was baptized as the da. of Alexander McDOUGALL). See Appendix D.]

UNITED STATES PATENT OFFICE.

HUGH McDOUGALL, OF BROOKLYN, NEW YORK.

DEVICE FOR SECURING EYEGLASSES.

SPECIFICATION forming part of Letters Patent No. 529,402, dated November 20, 1894.

Application filed April 9, 1894. Serial No. 506,901. (No model.)

To all whom it may concern:

Be it known that I, HUGH MCDOUGALL, a citizen of the United States, residing at Brooklyn, county of Kings, State of New York, have invented a new and useful Device for Securing Eyeglasses, of which the following is a specification.

A customary convenient means for attaching eye glasses to the clothing of the wearer is by means of a tape or cord carried by a spring reel which is adapted to pay out the cord at will or to instantly retract it and draw the eye-glasses up out of the way when released by the hand. A gravity-pawl is generally used for stopping the reel and this and other parts have been of rather crude construction, so that the device was noisy and imperfect in operation, and, especially, it lacked sensitiveness in responding to the movement of the operator's hand, whether it be in stopping or starting the winding or unwinding of the cord.

My improvements have in view certain improvements in the mechanism tending to improve the ease of running of the reel and the sensitiveness of the pawl in responding to the movements of the operator's hand.

Referring to the accompanying drawings which form a part of this specification:—Figure I is a perspective view, to an enlarged scale, partly broken away of my improved device for securing eye glasses. Fig. II is a top view to a still larger scale of the reel bear[illegible] Fig. III is a sectional view of the same. Fig. IV is a detached perspective view of the pawl.

The case of my improved attachment is made up of the back 1 and cover 2 and to the back is secured a safety pin 3 which enables the fastening of the device to the coat or other garment. Within the case is a reel 4 having a spiral spring 5 one end of which is fastened to a post 6 by means of a slit 7 therein while the other end is fixed to the reel.

The post 6 has an annular chamber within it which is occupied by a sleeve 8 adapted to rotate on the stud 9 which is formed integral with, or fastened rigidly to, the post 6 at bottom. The reel 4 is mounted on the sleeve 8, its upper plate 10 seating against the shoulder 11 thereof and then being fixed by upsetting the part of the sleeve 8 above said shoulder. The stud 9 is split as shown at 12 to receive a short key or plate 13 which is then held by pinching the split end of the post. The plate 13 then acts to hold the reel and its sleeve 8 on the stud 9 as well as acting as a stop for the pawl as hereinafter set forth. This construction of the post, its stud and the sleeve thereon affords a long bearing for the reel insuring its easy and noiseless running. To the reel is fixed the cord or tape 14 having a suitable hook 15 for the eye-glass. On the plate 10 of the reel I mount the pawl 16 which I make in the shape of a roller as shown. I turn up from the plate 10, a lip 17 which is punched with a hole as shown at 18 in Fig. IV sufficiently large to allow the neck 19 of the roller 16 to run and twist freely therein. The neck of the roller is inserted in this bearing by splitting the top of the lip 17 which then allows the neck of the roller to be slipped into place and is subsequently brought back to the original shape as shown in Fig. IV.

In practice, the attachment is fastened to the coat or other garment by pin 3 and the eye-glasses are attached by hook 15. By drawing down the eye-glasses, the reel 4 is rotated from right to left, winding up spring 5. The roller pawl 16 being allowed slight freedom of movement in the neck of lip 17, it will slip freely past the stop 13. If now the hand of the wearer be stopped and the reel be allowed to again slowly revolve from left to right, carrying with it the pawl 16, the latter will come against stop 13 as shown in Fig. I and the further operation of the reel will cease; but if the cord be first drawn out slightly so as to free pawl 16 from the stop 13 and then suddenly let go so as to release the reel to the full action of the spring, the centrifugal force of the rapid revolving reel will throw the pawl so that in its motion from left to right it will clear stop 13 and allow the cord to be completely wound on the reel.

The advantage of the roller form of pawl is that it responds very delicately to any movement of the operator's hand. It is not apt to stick but will roll down in position against the stop plate or key 13 as soon as it passes beyond the stop.

Having thus described my invention, the following is what I claim as new therein and desire to secure by Letters Patent:

529,402

1. In a device for securing eye glasses, the combination of the casing 1, 2, post 6 fixed to said casing and having a central stud 9 and an annular chamber surrounding said stud, a reel, a sleeve 8 fastened to said reel and having bearing on said stud 9 in said chamber, and means of retaining said sleeve upon said stud, substantially as set forth.

2. In a device for securing eye-glasses, the combination of a casing 1, 2, a spring actuated reel having a central bearing in said casing, a stop plate and a roller-formed pawl and means for attaching one end of said pawl near the periphery of said reel and allowing no endwise movement while permitting it to vibrate and to rotate, substantially as set forth.

3. The combination in a device for securing eye glasses of the post having fixed stop or plate 13, the spring reel 4 having plate or disk 10 provided with lip 17 and the roller pawl 16 having a neck engaging said lip and arranged to operate, substantially as set forth.

HUGH MCDOUGALL.

JOHN DOUGALL BIBLE RECORD

[Note.--The three entries reproduced below all derive from a copy made in 1838 by Alexander Colquhoun of Paisley, Renfrewshire, Scotland, from the family Bible then in his possession, and sent by Alexander Colquhoun to his cousin John Dougall (see §316), then living in Montreal, Lower Canada. These entries were then copied in 1871 for John Dougall's brother James (see §333), the author's great-grandfather, and the 1871 copies, now in the author's collection of family memorabilia, are the source for the text reproduced here. They indicate that the first two sections were entered in the original family Bible on blank pages on the reverse of two illustrations in the Book of Esther.]

(1)

I John Dougall Weaver was born in the Caltown of Glasgow on the 12th day of March 1728 years and I was married to Mary Campbell on the 25 day of January by the Reverend Mr Duncanson within the parish church of Roseneath in the year 1750 and Mary Campbell was born in the Gairlochhead in April 1725 years.

And our first child was born in the Caltown of Glasgow on the 30th January 1751 and Mary the second was born in the Corsnock in the parish of Roseneath on the 30 day of August 1751 and she died on the 9th day of Feby 1754 in the Caltown and Cathreen the 3d was born on the 10 Nov 1755 in the Calton of Glasgow and she perished in a water hole on the 3d day of April 1757, and Mary the fourth was born on the 27 Jany 1757 in the Calton and John the 5 on the 12 May 1759 and died 10 Augt 1760, and Duncan the 6th was born 14 Feby 1762 in Calton and Marion the 7th was born on the 10 July 1764 in Calton and John the 8th was born in Paisley 27 Nov 1766 and baptized the same day and died 28 Feby 1769 and Isobel the 9th was born 9 May 1769 in Paisley and she was baptized by Rev Dr Geo Moor.

My Father James Dougall weaver in the Caltown of Glasgow dyed on the 21 day of May 17 0 (the third figure so blotted that it is impossible to make it out) aged 61 years and my mother Christian Buchanan died on the 19 January 1772 in the Calton aged 82 and my mother in law Mary Macfarland died in Roseneath 5 July 1772 aged 72 and my brother in law John McFarland died 1770 and my brother in law Dugald Campbell merchant in Greenock died 6 April 1772 aged 32 years and my sister in law Agnes Campbell died 20 Dec 1759 in Calton aged 32 years and my sister in law Cathreen Campbell died 28 Oct 1762 in Calton and our old son James Dougalld Corporal in the 69 Regt of foot died on the 8 March 1775 aged 24 years and 8 days (this is the eldest child not named in the preceding list) and was buried in the Abbey Church yard of Paisley and my sister in law Isobel Campbell died on the 31 day of Oct 1775 years aged 48 (I think), and my brother Alexander Dougalld weaver in Mickle Govan died of colick on the 26 day of Nov 1776 years aged 43 years 9 mos and in 1770 my aunt Janet Buchanan died in the parish of the Row and shire of Dunbarton aged 1005 years.

Upon the 8th day of January 1781 my Granddaughter Mary Dougall died of the small pox aged one year and eight days and on the 18th day of March 1789 my Grandson John Milton died of the small pox, aged seven months, and on the 11th day of April 1789 my Grandson James Dougall died of the small pox aged ten months and twenty days, and on the 5th day of May my Grandson John Dougall died of a wasting and a gravel aged fifteen years three months and twenty one days; 1789.

[Note.--In the second entry reproduced above, it appears that in either the original Bible or the 1838 copy the year of James Dougall's death was partly illegible; from the record of his burial reproduced facing page 1 it is clear that he died in 1760. Janet Buchanan's age at death was presumably 105 (certainly not 1005) years.]

APPENDIX C

ADDRESS BY JAMES DOUGALL, MAYOR OF WINDSOR, CANADA WEST (see §333), TO H.R.H. THE PRINCE OF WALES (LATER KING EDWARD VII) ON THE OCCASION OF THE PRINCE'S VISIT TO WINDSOR IN SEPTEMBER 1860

May it please your Royal Highness:

We the Mayor and Council of the Town of Windsor, on behalf of the inhabitants, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness and present our sincere congratulations on your safe arrival in this part of the Province of Canada.

Words cannot express the delight it has afforded us that our beloved Queen has deigned to depute you, Her Son, the Heir Apparent of Her mighty Empire, to visit in Her name this portion of Her Majesty's dominions; we regard it as another token of the deep interest which Her Majesty feels in the welfare and happiness of Her subjects however distant they may be.

Though situated at the extreme west of the Canadian frontier and surrounded by the Great American Republic we can assure your Royal Highness that our people yield to none in loyalty and devotion to our Sovereign and Country and attachment to the free institutions which we have derived from the land of our forefathers; their loyalty has been already well tested in the War of 1812 and in the troubles of 1837 and 1838 when our Militia braved great dangers and endured the utmost hardships in obedience to their Allegiance, in defence of their Country, and to preserve the integrity of this portion of the British Empire.

We regret that the time at the disposal of your Royal Highness is so limited that you have found it impossible to prolong your stay amongst us, that we might be enabled more fully to testify our respect for your Royal Highness and shew you the richness of our Country and the beautiful scenery of our noble River so replete with the stirring memories of the early settlement of the Country.

As the visit of your Royal Highness to this Province is now closing, permit us to express a hope that anything unpleasant that may have occurred in the receptions given you in this Country may be obliterated from your memory, and that your Royal Highness may only retain the pleasurable recollection of the unfeigned loyalty and affection of the people.

We pray that your Royal Highness may have a safe and pleasant journey home and that the Almighty may bless, guide and protect you in all your ways.

JAMES DOUGALL
Mayor

APPENDIX D

LETTER FROM HUGH DOUGALL OR McDOUGALL (see §628) TO HIS COUSIN DUNCAN DOUGALL (see §3)

Newark, New Jersey, February 20, 1805

Dear Cousin,

Your favour of 5 March last came duly to hand and I was very glad to hear from you and of your welfare. I have to inform you that your old uncle my father is dead; he died six weeks ago, a very aged and respectable citizen of New York. My mother is well and my brothers John, William, and Alexander are well and are in New York. My Brother James we have not heard of since we first came to this Country; whether he still lives we do not know. Walter was prest on board a man of war then lying in the harbour of New York in the American War and we never heard from him since; whether he lives we do not know. Robert died in New York in '97 after many years suffering from French cruelty and disorders caught in French prisons in the West Indies, by being taken on board a British Merch^{t} ship; he left a wife and four children. My Brothers are all in good circumstances except John who lost his family--wife and children--by the yellow fever in 1795 and narrowly escaped himself; he is very low in the goods of this world owing to his misfortunes.

My elder brothers put a M^{c} to their name, and I to be in fashion do the same.

Dear Cousin, I remain

Afft yours

HUGH DOUGALL or
H. M^{c}DOUGALL

CORRESPONDENCE AND INTERVIEWS

Much of the information in this volume on living members of the family was compiled on the basis of the author's correspondence and interviews (in person or by telephone) with other members of the family. In the "Sources on Individual Sections" which follow the Bibliography, the names of family members who supplied information by correspondence or in interviews are given first.

BIBLE RECORDS

Entries in the following family Bibles have been examined by the author, or their content has been sent to the author by the individuals named below:

Ackerson Bible; courtesy of Hilda (Steigman) Scott.
Anderson Bible (Archibald Young); entries relating to the family of Archibald Young Anderson; courtesy of the late Dorothy (Wade) MacLaren.
Bird Bible; entries relating to the family of John Bird and his wife Mary Dougel Young; courtesy of William Harold Bird.
Dougall Bible (Arthur St. George); entries relating to the descendants of Arthur St. George Dougall and his wife Mary Elisabeth Maitland; Bible in the author's possession.
Dougall Bible (Charles Redpath); entries relating to the family of Charles Redpath Dougall; courtesy of C. Dougall Bell.
Dougall Bible (Duncan); entries relating to the family of Duncan Dougall; copy in the author's collection of family memorabilia. (See Appendix B.)
Dougall Bible (John); entries relating to the family of John Dougall; copy in the author's collection of family memorabilia. (See Appendix A.)
Dougall Bible (John II); entries relating to the family of John Dougall (* 1786 † 1836); copy in the author's collection of family memorabilia.
Fairchild Bible; courtesy of Catharine (Hough) Miller.
Ferguson Bible; courtesy of the late Katherine (McDougall) Stott.

FAMILY RECORDS

The author has in his collection of family memorabilia copies of two letters (of 1805 and about 1815) from Hugh Dougall or McDougall to his cousin Duncan Dougall; the text of one of these is reproduced in Appendix D. The 1805 letter provided the essential link between the Canadian and New York/New Jersey branches of the Dougall/McDougall family. He also has in his collection an autobiographical sketch by James Dougall, Mayor of Windsor. A long autobiographical manuscript by the Rev. James McDougall, pastor of the First Church at Huntington, New York, is in the possession of the Church; a copy was made available to the author by Miriam Kortright. Notes by Hugh McDougall (who came with his father to New York from Scotland in 1774) were, when the author studied them, in the possession of the late James McDougall Craven; they provided the interesting information that Hugh's father Walter Dougall was imprisoned in the Quaker meeting house in New York during the Revolutionary War for refusing to help in the building of fortifications against the British. The following materials are cited as "Family Records" with short identification in the "Sources for Individual Sections" which follow the Bibliography:

Anderson Family Record (James Young); record of the family of James Young Anderson and his wife Agnes Thompson More; courtesy of Joan (Durrant) Smith.
Craven Family Tree; courtesy of the late James McDougall Craven, whose ancestry it traced.

Dougall Family Record (Francis James); record of the family of Francis James Dougall and his wife Emily Fanning Richardson, compiled about 1903 by their son Arthur St. George Dougall; in the author's collection of family memorabilia (facsimile of one page reproduced on page 162).

Dougall Family Record (James); manuscript headed "Pedigree of the Dougall Family" in the author's collection of family memorabilia; prepared in 1871 by James Dougall, Mayor of Windsor. It was this record which provided the link by which the author managed to trace the descendants of Archibald Young and his wife Mary Dougall.

Harris Family Record; includes the descendants of Jesse Harris and his wife Grace MacDougall; courtesy of Robert H. Harris.

King Family Tree; gives the descendants of Charles Trimmer King and his wife Catherine McDougall; courtesy of Alden P. King.

Lynn Family Record; compiled by John Bratt; courtesy of the late Alice Amanda Bratt.

MacDougall Family Record (William E.); record of the ancestry of William E. MacDougall compiled by the late Grace (MacDougall) Harris; courtesy of Robert H. Harris.

McColl Family Record; the results of the research by the late Jeanie (McColl) Davis on the McColl family are available in the form of "archive records" on individual members of the family which Mrs. Davis filed with the Genealogical Society of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, Salt Lake City, Utah.

McDougall Family Record (Hugh); manuscript headed "Family Records of Hugh McDougall" copied in 1887 by the Rev. James McDougall and sent to his brother John Alexander McDougall; courtesy of Beatrice (McDougall) Lindberg.

McDougall Family Record (John Alexander); record of the family of John Alexander McDougall, Sr., a well-known portrait and landscape painter; courtesy of Robert H. Harris.

McDougall Family Record (John S.); manuscript headed "Grandfather McDougall's family record", giving dates for the family of John S. McDougall and his first wife Abigail; courtesy of Bess (Bisbing) Warrick.

McDougall Family Record (Robert); record of the family of Robert Dougall, later McDougall (* 1784), and of his son Robert McDougall, compiled by John Bratt, who apparently had access to the Robert McDougall family Bible; courtesy of the late Alice Amanda Bratt. Since the date of the first Robert's birth given in this record was identical with that given for Robert Dougall in the baptismal registers of the First Presbyterian Church, New York City, the author was able through this manuscript to place correctly the entire Robert McDougall branch of the family.

Park Family Record; record of the descendants of Philip Philhower Park, including a branch of the King family; courtesy of Alden P. King.

Watson Family Record; record of the family of David Watson and his wife Mary Wark; courtesy of Burton McC. Duncan.

Wiggins Family Record; record included the descendants of Uel Hurd Wiggins and his wife Matilda S. Woodruff; courtesy of the late Phoebe Schling.

Young Family Record (Archibald I); record of the family of Archibald Young and his wife Mary Dougall; courtesy of Hume B. Young (facsimile reproduced on page 2).

CENSUS RECORDS

The author found the census records listed below invaluable in tracing various branches of the family; appropriate citations to individual entries are given in "Sources for Individual Sections".

In the United States National Archives: The Federal decennial censuses for 1850, 1860, 1870, and 1880. (When the "soundex index" for the 1880 census is cited, it means that the author relied upon the index citation--which includes, for families having children under 10, most of the information except occupation included in the full census return.)

In the Archives and History Bureau, New Jersey State Library: The New Jersey state decennial censuses for 1855, 1865, 1875, 1885, 1895, 1905, and 1915. The later censuses in this series were particularly valuable since they identified for the author a number of cousins still living whom he was able to locate after learning of their existence from the censuses.

In the Public Archives of Canada: The 1861 census for Lambton County, Canada West, and the 1871 census for Lambton County, Ontario. (The author used microfilm copies borrowed on interlibrary loan through the courtesy of the Public Archives of Canada and the District of Columbia Public Library.)

In the General Register Office for Scotland: The Scottish censuses for 1841, 1851, 1861, and 1871. (The author used microfilm copies borrowed through the courtesy of the Genealogical Society of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, Salt Lake City, Utah. Unfortunately he was not able to identify entries which could be tied in with the present history.)

In the Office of the Ontario County Clerk, Canandaigua, New York: The New York state census for 1855 (courtesy of Mary Loper).

OFFICIAL RECORDS OF VITAL STATISTICS

Except for the New Jersey state records of vital statistics (1848-1972), which he used in person, the author has relied on correspondence with the various authorities listed below to obtain copies or extracts of vital records. (In a few cases, other individuals have done research for him, as credited below; and a few collections of vital records listed under "Local History" below or scattered in genealogical publications are cited separately.) The author is particularly indebted to Mr. Ferdinand Jablonski and his staff in the New Jersey Bureau of Vital Statistics for their courtesy and patience in allowing him to examine original or microfilm records, including all MacDougall and McDougall entries since 1848, over a period of a good many days; the generosity of the research policy at Trenton made it possible to trace a great many lines from the mid-nineteenth century to a moderately current date, which in turn led to the discovery of many of the cousins listed in the last half of this volume. Of all vital records, death certificates were in general the most useful (they sometimes contain not only date and place of death but also place of burial, date and place of birth, names of parents and spouse, birthplace of parents, and name and address of a surviving relative), and it is for this reason that they are so often cited in this work. In the "Sources for Individual Sections" the symbol VS followed by a location refers to copies or extracts of vital records used from the following jurisdictions:

VS Alta., Provincial Registrar General for Alberta.
VS Ariz., Division of Vital Records, State Department of Health, Phoenix, Arizona.

PR Windsor (St. Alphonsus), parochial registers of St. Alphonsus' Catholic Church, Windsor, Ontario.
PR Windsor (St. John), parochial register of St. John's Anglican Church, Sandwich, Windsor, Ontario.

A few references to published parochial registers, such as those of the Presbyterian Church at Hanover, New Jersey, printed in the Genealogical Magazine of New Jersey, are cited in "Sources for Individual Sections".

TOMBSTONE INSCRIPTIONS

The author has used the sources listed below under Published Sources, Local History, for tomstone inscriptions, and also a manuscript volume on Morris County, New Jersey, monumental inscriptions in the library of the New Jersey Historical Society, Newark, New Jersey. In addition, he has assembled data himself, or had them sent to him by the individuals named below, from tombstones in the following cemeteries:

Florida: Fort Myers Cemetery, Fort Myers (courtesy of Mary (Smith) Moody).
Illinois: Maplewood Cemetery, St. Elmo (courtesy of the Cemetery).

NEWSPAPERS

In the "Sources for Individual Sections" the author has used the symbol UNC when information given is based on an unidentified newspaper clipping (sometimes recent, sometimes venerable and faded) sent or shown to him by some member of the family. Although valuable sources of information, these clippings sometimes are infuriatingly incomplete ("last Thursday" instead of the date, for example), and the year--if there at all--has usually been added by some unknown hand.

In addition to the newspapers listed below and the Canfield compilations cited above under Local History, the author has used a card catalog of biographical information based on newspaper sources in the New Jersey Historical Society, New Jersey, and a series of volumes containing information culled from newspapers in the library of the Long Island Historical Society, Brooklyn, New York. He is indebted to these two societies for the hospitality tendered him.

CITY DIRECTORIES

The monumental collection of city directories in the Library of Congress has been a major resource for the author in tracing many branches of the family. Although only a few city directories appear as sources in the "Sources for Individual Sections", the directories for the following cities (or groups of cities) were extremely useful in tracing various branches of the family:

California: San Francisco; Oakland
Iowa: Dubuque
Massachusetts: Leominster
Nebraska: Omaha
New Hampshire: Portsmouth
New Jersey: Dover
Elizabeth
Morristown
Newark
The Oranges
